Mayor Report

Mayor Alicia Hagen received a call from a mom that was upset that there are swings missing at south park. The swings are broken, and new ones are ordered. Mayor Hagen was asked what was going on with Sally Findley's property. Sally's 90 days is about up. Once 90 days are reached the city will proceed with a letter from the attorney. Krystal Cantrell got a visit from the police about her RV. Krystal would like clarification if she is in compliance or not. The ordinance reads utility connections related to visiting a residence shall not exceed fourteen days within a six-month period. Mayor Hagen will let Krystal know. Mayor Hagen had Tony Boring with Seymour Special Road District speak to her about Pioneer Drive. Tony spoke with County Commissioner Randy Owens. Randy told Tony Seymour Special Road District does not own Pioneer Drive. The City of Seymour owns it. Mayor Hagen and Tony will be attending the County Commission meeting next Tuesday at 10:00 a.m. City Administrator Hillary Elliott wants it noted that Pioneer Drive is a private drive that is not owned by the city.

At 7:10 p.m. a motion was made by Wallace/Crisp to go into executive session. Ayes: all. Nays: none. The following roll call vote was recorded. Alderman Jim Ashley-yes. Alderman Bub Wallace-yes. Alderwoman Nadine Crisp-yes. Alderman Dan Wehmer-yes.

The reason for executive session is pursuant to section 610.021 (3) Personnel.

At 7:30 p.m. a motion was made by Wallace/Wehmer to adjourn. Ayes: all. Nays: none. The following roll call vote was recorded. Alderman Jim Ashley-yes. Alderman Bub Wallace-yes. Alderwoman Nadine Crisp-yes. Alderman Dan Wehmer-yes.
